

Attention

There will be a funding opportunity through a Notice of Funds Availability (NOFA) for FY 2009 funding round of Financial Education and Counseling (FEC) Pilot Program. The purpose is for eligible organizations (Certified entities by HUD as Housing Counseling Agencies or certified by the Office of Financial Education) to provide a range of education and counseling services to prospective homebuyers. Grant funds will be awarded to successful applicants that identify methods of these services that result in positive behavioral changes with measurable effects to prospective homebuyers. For those interested it may also assist you in conjunction with the various programs that provide subsidy for purchase (i.e. HOME, NSP, CDBG, Rural Housing Services etc.) to prospective homebuyers. The following web site provides the particulars concerning the NOFA and application:
