Domestic Violence is when one person in a relationship purposely hurts another person physically or emotionally. Domestic Violence is also called Intimate Partner Violence because current or former spouses, boyfriends or girlfriends, dating partners, or sexual partners often cause it. It can occur between heterosexual or same-sex couples and does not require sexual intimacy.

Domestic Violence includes:
- Physical Abuse like hitting, shoving, kicking, biting, or throwing things.
- Emotional Abuse like yelling, controlling what you do, or threatening to cause serious problems for you.
- Sexual Abuse like forcing you to do something sexual you don't want to do.
- Stalking like repeated, unwanted phone calls/texts, spying, or making physical threats.

You are not alone
People of all races, education levels, and ages experience domestic abuse. In the United States, more than 5 million women are abused by an intimate partner each year.

Nationally, South Carolina is ranked among the highest in Domestic Violence.

IS IT HAPPENING TO YOU?
It's not your fault. It's against the law. It affects your health and your children.
You are not alone
