

In-Person Applicant Support Centers

For the week of June 27 – July 3, 2022

Library and Community Resource Centers

Drop-in and receive in-person support for completing your SC Stay Plus application. All applicants are required to submit certain documentation in order to successfully complete an application. In addition to application support, you may also complete your application at home and drop off your documents in person at any of these locations.

Please note, locations with an () indicate that a bi-lingual staff member will be present for Spanish-language support. Our staff at all other listed locations will be able to connect you with Spanish-language support upon request.*

Applicants should notify the program immediately if there is an urgent change in their situation—e.g., they receive an eviction notice, utilities are about to be disconnected, or they have been evicted and are now homeless. This allows the program staff to prioritize their application for assistance.

Applicants who need to follow-up with phone call to program:

Call the SC Stay Plus call center at 803-336-3420

Applicants needing to email additional documents after trying online portal can send items with their name and application number (SCEXXXXX) to: SCStayPlus@SCHousing.com
